LUTTRELLSTOWN

 Castlethorn

Rooted in Nature. Connected by Water.

With over three decades of experience in creating homes and communities, Castlethorn is delighted to continue the growth of the thriving Dublin 15 area with a new addition, Canal Gardens. This exciting new development includes a variety of house types, all built to the highest standards and reflects Castlethorn's existing neighbouring developments in Dublin 15, which include Riverwood, Fernleigh, Annfield, and Woodbrook. We look forward to bringing more exciting new developments to the Dublin 15 community over the coming years.

Stunning, Contemporary Architecture

Timeless, Elegant Interiors with a Contemporary Edge

Perfect convenience meets a stunning waterside setting at Canal Gardens, a collection of spacious 3 & 4 bed family homes nestled between Luttrellstown Castle Estate and Dublin's Royal Canal in Dublin 15. Each home is thoughtfully built and designed for modern families, and reflect Castlethorn's mission to continually improve its building standards.

Beautiful Natural Amenities, Right On Your Doorstep

Canal Gardens takes its name from the neighbouring Royal Canal, a historic waterway with a hiking and cycling trail that stretches 146.3 km which is just a stroll from your new front door. In addition there are plenty of other opportunities to enjoy the great outdoors, from acclaimed local golf clubs to Dublin's best and biggest parks.

Connectivity

Canal Gardens is well connected to Dublin City Centre via bus and rail.

Perhaps Canal Gardens' best feature is its connectivity to Dublin City Centre and the rest of the country. Motorists have easy access to both the N3 and N4 main roads, which serve both the city centre and the M50. Dublin Airport is less than 20 minutes away, while O'Connell Bridge is only 15km away. Canal Gardens is also served by several regular Dublin Bus routes – great for students and commuters alike – while Coolmine train station is just a short stroll away, offering a rail option as well.
